REMEMBERING.....

In the past 125 years many students have passed through this institution's doors. Each student holds some memories of the initial fear they felt on coming to the Michigan School for the Deaf. Those first days were filled with many concerns; leaving home, many for the first time; leaving parents; living with kids and houseparents that were strangers to them.

As the years pass, these feelings about MSD change and by the time graduation rolls around most students experience some feelings of sadness at leaving a place that has helped them to mature and grow in so many ways. After 125 successful years this is truly a second home, a place worth remembering.

A PARADE OF STARS

The 1978 Homecoming floats were all based on T.V. programs. The Senior class chose a winning "Peanuts" theme. The Junior class had Bill Trombley as "The Hulk" who was out to destroy the Firebirds. "The Flintstones" was done by the Freshmen class. The Sophomore class did the "Gong Show" with Shari Clemons gonging the Firebirds to defeat. Last but not least was the 7th and 8th grade float with the theme "Happy Days." Robert Sommerville and Doreen Gerada are "The Fonz" and his escort.

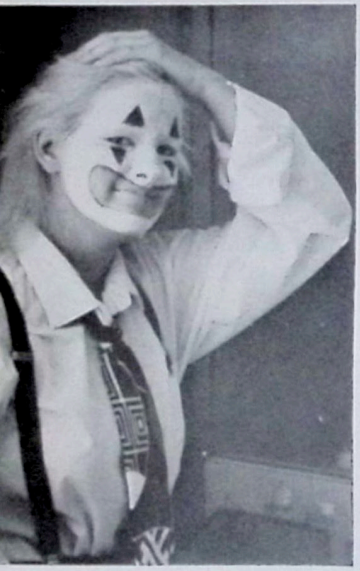
AMA DRAMA DRAMA



In the Spring of 1978 the students of MSD gave a play. It consisted of many different skits. Francine Brown was the director and she did a fine job. Everyone who was involved worked very hard and enjoyed themselves doing the skits and making props. The skits were a huge success!

DRAMA DRAMA DRAMA DRA

MA DRAMA

Bob Davis, choreographer, friend and craftsman gave much of his time to MSD this year. He was involved and supportive in all of the drama presentations. Bob gave generously of his "spare time" to act as resource person, dance teacher, seamstress, drama coach and a thousand other things. We all benefited from our contact with him. Thank you Bob from all of us!

DRAMA DRAMA DRA

DRAMA DRAMA DRAMA

On the right, the man in white stage make-up is Tom Alston. He is a mime artist. One of the best in our area. He came to MSD to give a free performance for all the students. It was a beautiful experience!

DRAMA DR

At MSD there are a variety of drama experiences. Everything from people performing for us, to us performing for people. Ms. Porter's Communications class is seen as the Three Little Pigs while another class performs a Thanksgiving tribute.

RAMA DRAMA DRAMA DRAMA DRAMA DRAM

Summer school of 1978 had Mary and her little lambs getting ready for an Artrain performance in downtown Flint. If some of the little lambs look a "little big", it is because they are trying to help Mary tend her flock. Ms. Higgins is seen trying to get Ricky Galbraith, the black sheep, on the right path.

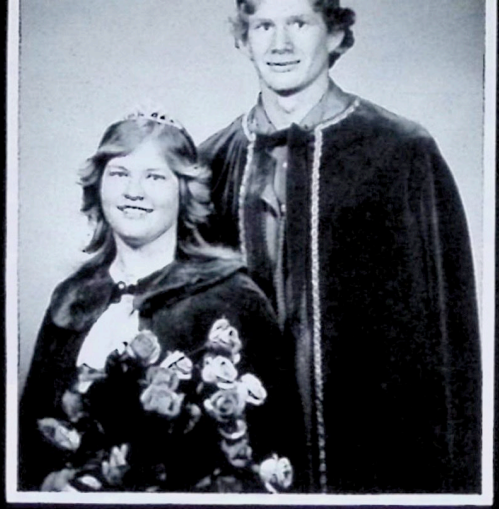
URNALISM - YEARBOOK STAFF JOURNA

The Michigan Mirror yearbook and the Michigan Mirror are made possible by the cooperative effort of many people. The one person who has given extraordinary amounts of her time to produce this beautiful book is Judy Ann Lowrie. Ms. Lowrie has been at all atheletic events, social events and spent numerous hours after school working on lay-outs. This 1978-1979 Mirror is DYN-O-MITE and so is Judy Lowrie.



Queen Vicki Galentine and King Kevin Taylor are shown ruling over their runner-ups Johnston Grindstaff and Trudy Haselhuhn.

Life in the dorm is a large part of the learning experience gained at M.S.D. We learn to live with others and cooperate with houseparents who help fill the role of our parents during the week. We also, as we get older, learn to live more independently of home and prepare for our future roles at Michigan residents.

The dorm offers many activities such TV, ping, pong, captioned films, an outside play area, use of the pool in the school, the Senior class store, etc. Houseparents can be in constant contact with parents and each other through use of intercampus telephones and TTY's.

This year's wrestling team had lots of experience (5 Seniors) and talent, but we had a disappointing 4 wins and 11losses. We beat Maumee Valley and MSB and many other meets were very close.

David Zanavich was the only wrestler to qualify for the State finals, where he won 1 and lost 2. This was a good feat after being side-lined with a neck injury for almost 2 months.
